

LEADERSHIP GIVING AT-A-GLANCE

Since 1927, generous individuals across our region have relied on United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania as a philanthropic guide and partner in creating the greatest good. Leadership donors enjoy unique opportunities for engagement, recognition and impact. The more you give, the more United Way can do to meet increasing community needs.

GIVING LEVELS & BENEFITS

Tocqueville Society: $10,000 + each year

Join the region's most influential and engaged civic leaders at setting the course for our region's future. Join us at private networking receptions and high-level educational, volunteer engagement and social events. We'll recognize you in our annual directory and online. And you'll be among a select group that we invite you to participate in our Multi-Year Grand funding review process.

Bridges Society: $1,000 to $9,999 each year

Take your place alongside emerging and established leaders from all backgrounds to support United Way. Live your values while creating opportunities for others to thrive. You'll network with peers and community leaders and will be recognized on our website.

Women United: $1,000 to $9,999 each year

Giving at Bridges or Tocqueville Society levels provides entry into Women United, a thriving donor network of 2,000+ strong and passionate members of all ages, backgrounds, workplaces and interests. Volunteer, network and engage and will be recognized on our website.

Step-Up Opportunities

Questions on leadership giving or how to "step up" over five years while receiving recognition immediately? Contact Linda Jones at Linda.Jones@unitedwayswpa.org

Join us. Lead with us. Together, we create lasting change in southwestern Pennsylvania.